Every Institution Is The Lengthened Shadow Of A Man

As a result of inherent tendencies and the desire for learning the school has established itself in its various forms for individuals to enjoy and to benefit from its many departments. Man must be educated in order that he may be able to make proper adjustments to his surroundings in life.

Of Their Duties In The Pursuit Of Knowledge

All the measurements must be level, including bicarbonate.

STOCKHOLDERS

These are the men who have a special interest in this institution which is a form of order established within the social life by some common wills. Their duties include interviewing applicants for employment, supplying information regarding the company's efficiency, and spending considerable time and effort studying the possibilities of this institution.

PRESIDENT

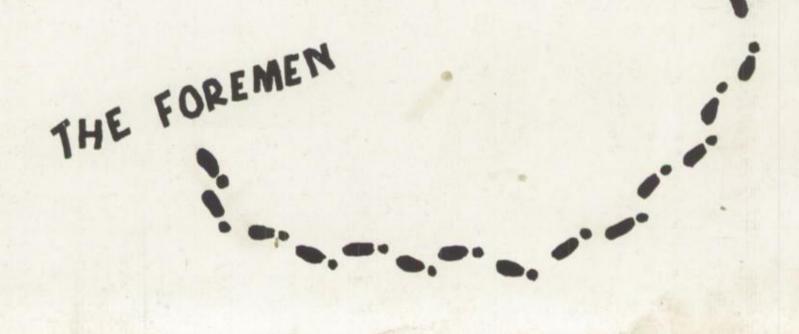

The head administrator of a business must devote his time and energies to directing policies and handling complex administrative matters. He directs the daily operating activities of the firm, as well as different affairs which might claim his attention over a greater period of time.

Our President is very much concerned about our various occupations for the future and is eager for us to make great progress in our chosen field, his judicious counsel, knowledge, and experience will be of magnanimous value to us.

Lives Of Great Men All Remind Us,

As representatives of the various departments of the school, faculty members render a great service in the instruction and guidance of students. They continually strive to interest students in achieving the highest possible individual attainments, and assist in the promotion of social activities and the direction of scholastic enterprise. Industry is very cautious to hire those people who are specially trained in psychology, sociology, mental hygiene and other phases. Since specialization and the scale of operations are increasing these men and women must be prepared to intelligently counsel those students who may come under their advisory.

Dorothy Bandy

Latin, English

Miss Bandy, resident of White Hall, Illinois, went to Illinois State Normal for her Bachelor Degree and to the University of Illinois for her Master's. She takes time out from her teaching to enjoy "Tales of Vienna Woods."

Raymond J. Bersche

Spanish Social Science

Mr. Bersche, a native of Waterloo, Illinois, is teaching his third year in Jerseyville. He received his A.B. degree at Washington U. in St. Louis, Missouri, and then went to the University of Wisconsin for his M.A. Has anybody seen Frank Sinatra?

Nellie P. Brown

Commercial

Miss Brown, who comes from Foosland, Illinois, attended Gregg's Secretarial Training School, Gem City Business College, University of Wisconsin, University of Colorado, and Illinois State Normal University. A favorite pastime of Miss Brown's is reading "The King's General."

Alga L. Carman

Woodworking

Mr. Carman hails from Metropolis, Illinois, and received his Bachelor of Science Degree from University of Illinois. He says he likes everyone and everything. We know he is an all-around good fellow.

Our Lives Sublime

Ralph Cavanah

P. E., Civics

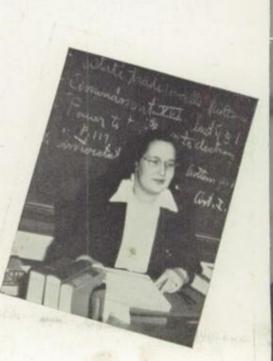

Kirksville State Teachers College is the Alma Mater of this teacher from Marceline, Missouri. There he received his B.S. Degree. We have heard his favorite song is "In The Shade of The Old Apple Tree."

Winifred Close

Commercial

Winifred Close of Kane received her A.B. Degree from MacMurray College and also attended Illinois State Normal and the University of Colorado. When not going to basketball games, she likes to listen to Beethoven's compositions.

Hildreth Noeker Edwards

Music

Mrs. Edwards came to us from Virginia, Illi-nois. She attended Chicago Musical College, the University of Illinois, and received her B.A. Degree from MacMurray College. "Let's get back to our music."

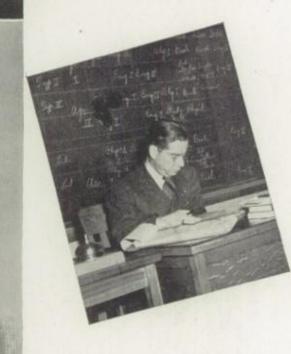

Cuma Lee Frost

History, Sociology

Miss Frost is a Jerseyville native. She is a graduate from MacMurray College having received a B.A. Degree. She has a liking for apple pie, and a dislike for the word "ain't."

And Departing

Howard F. Groppel

General Science

Mr. Groppel received his A.B. Degree from Shurtleff College and attended Southern Illinois Normal University and Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri. His students frequently hear him say, "Do you get what I mean?"

Alex Guinn

Mr. Guinn is a native of Kansas City, Missouri. He received extensive training at the University of Southern California, University of Colorado, Washington University, University of Missouri and Harvard University. He received his Masters Degree at Washington University.

Augusta Hallett

U. S. History Economics, Civics

Mrs. Hallett received her A.B. from Illinois College and her M.A. from University of Illinois. For Mrs. Hallett, we give a heaping dish of ice cream.

Louis Newton Heider

Chemistry Physics, Radio

Louis Newton Heider, another teacher who is a resident of Jerseyville, attended University of Illinois, University of Iowa and received his B.A. Degree from Southern Missouri State Teachers College. Students prepare your lessons before hand, because he dislikes classes with unprepared material.

Leave Behind Us

Hazel Murray Leak

Typewriting

Our librarian received her Bachelor Degree from Illinois State Normal University. Any movie with Sonja Heinie is her favorite. Never, never, be guilty of taking library books out improperly!

Robert P. McCrackin

Agriculture

Disliking nothing, we have another citizen hailing from Overland, Missouri. University of Illinois awarded him his B.S. in Agriculture. He wishes to know if any rabbits occupy your farm.

Anna Marie Malik

P. E., Civics

This native of St. Louis received her B.S. in Education from Washington University. She delights in eating any food, but prefers roast pork and ice cream.

Rosalie A. Scheppers

English

Miss Scheppers claims Jefferson City, Missouri, as her home town. She did work at Warrensburg State Teachers College, St. Louis University and received her degree from Mt. St. Scholastica in Atchison, Kansas. "All right" is the signal to begin each period of the day.

Verna Woodman Office Secretary

Our office secretary is a native of Jerseyville, Illinois. T-bone steak is her favorite food. O. K. kids, where is your excuse; and what are you doing with books in a locker not assigned to you?

He That Hath A Trade Hath An Estate -

Within the minds of our young people must be built the importance of specialization. Each person's mind is a factory to be combined with thoughts and works of his fellow workers. During the past century occupational specialization has proceeded at a rapid rate. One member agrees to provide some commodity that will benefit a great number of people, his co-worker agrees to provide another one, thus in turn serves thousands of his fellow men. But it requires that he specialize and concentrate on a particular occupation which has come to be called his vocation.

It Is Useful Employment That Makes People Happy

Students of the modern school find a need for deciding upon their vocation early in life. Their aims must be high and far-reaching. Their efforts must be exact and untiring; for the ways of the world create one's life to be a race against time. A student should make an examination of himself to determine his general qualification for a vocation, good health, good manners, a pleasant bearing, honesty and cheerfulness are certain general traits which are important in practically every occupation.

THE SEMI-SKILLED

In Memoriam

Eddie C. Schell May 3, 1930 — July 20, 1946

"Their hearts were woven
Of human joys and cares.
The years had given them kindness,
The dawn was theirs.
All this is ended.
They leave a white unbroken glory,
A gathering radiance
As the setting sun."

In Memoriam

William Jennings September 1, 1930 — July 18, 1946

"There is no death.
An angel form
Walks on this earth
With silent tread,
And bears our best
Loved ones away.
He takes them to
That world of light
For all eternity."

Get Your Happiness Out Of Your Work

The kind of a person wanted in business is one who will give ideas. There are plenty of routine workers who will do the same old thing day after day and who will follow instructions fairly well, but there is a drastic shortage of young people who will use their brains and produce new ideas. A citizen is of value to society and the state only if he has the ability and willingness to help society and the state to be better because he is a member of them.

Unforeseen Is The Goal One Down, Three To Go

Youth is the period of plasticity and rapid development in which the foundations should be laid for an all-around culture and for special vocational power. If this vital period is allowed to pass without a broad development and special training that belong to it, no amount of education in after years can ever redeem the loss.

The Duty Has Been Performed, Their Dream To Be Fulfilled

These men were government employees; holding their jobs and doing their work faithfully as long as they were needed. They have returned to J. T. H. S. as students and teachers with a plan and a purpose clear in their minds.

Having made an inventory of their assets and possibilities their plans have been made. They continually secure information concerning requirements and the rewards of the utilization of educational facilities.

SEPTEMBER

Dear Diary,

This month is the beginning of the end—the lazy summer hours are gone. School has started!

Our Senior class discussions are very interesting, for Mrs. Schmidt, while paying close attention, fell off her chair.

In the midst of Kane and all the "Freshies" it is quite a thrill to see a familiar face. But I must admit, they all add interest to our dear school."

And now we start our football games. What would we girls do without those big, wonderful, football boys? Oh! Yes, this year is going to be super nice.

OCTOBER

Dear Diary,

There's magic in the air. Too much. Two live magicians. I'm afraid to take off my hat for fear rabbits might appear, not that I don't like rabbits, but, oh my pridel

Halloween, Halloween. Oh, what funny things are seen. I thought I'd flip when the parade went past. But the band was on hand and of course, they were perfectly marvelous.

And, Diary, guess who the queen candidates are. Well, there's Betty Thurston, Jeri Ferenbach, Donna Rea Beach, and Mary Murphy. Every class is rootin' for its candidate. They are all cute. Goshl I wonder who will win.

NOVEMBER

Dear Diary,

Boy! Am I bushed! The Senior Carnival was a big success but it is hard to concentrate on dry books when there are so many pleasant memories. There were a good many sighs from the stag line over the carnival queen and her attendants.

The girls have been cheated? The boys have had a super Father and Son Banquet. Believe me, girls, we'll have our day.

Our local Thespians, the Dramatic Club, gave Tomorrow the World. A very convincing performance, I've been dreaming of Nazis every night.

But now relaxation, Thanksgiving is coming. Oh! Mom! Where's the bicarbonate?

DECEMBER

Dear Diary,

Sprigs of holly and rosy cheeks mark the beginning of the nicest part of the year. The weather has been cold. Oh! Woe! No snow! And I'm dreaming of a white Christmas.

The Juniors are too. Their dance decorations were like beautiful greeting cards.

Aren't Christmas carols just swoonderful? Candles, robes, and smiling faces. They are all part of our annual Vesper service.

Now I can catch up on my sleep. Christmas vacation is here! At last Merry Christmas, Diary! See you next year.

JANUARY

Dear Diary,

"Vacations goeth before exams." Oh, how true, how true. If I pass this half, maybe the last half won't be so bad, I hope. But I am going to study this half—I gotta. No grades, no diploma. And no smoothing on the walls, according to Mrs. Leak.

And now I gotta rush to get ready for the game. Ahhh, basketball, my favorite sport! My feet are killing me. I like these school dances, but oh, my corns.

Ole' man winter's pulling his ole' tricks again. But I don't care. I love this sunshine and balmy air. Surely with this wonderful weather now, we won't have any more cold.

FEBRUARY

Dear Diary,

Whe-e-e-e, I want to be a gypsie-e. I want to dance and sing under the open skies. What a wonderful operettal The beautiful clothes and the dancers were simply divine, I mean, really.

I do, do, do love these school dances. Guess whose Valentine I am. All these good times at once! Lincoln's Birthday and no school, the Sophomore dance, and after that Valentine's Day.

All dis' code weader has gibbin me a code in de node. I've used two whole boxes of Kleenex in the last week.

MARCH

Dear Diary,

Sure, and how can the shamrocks grow in this weather! March has marched in with the lion. Roodhouse marched off with the Regional. But our old rival Carrollton put up a stiff fight for the honors.

Bring out the Kleenex and cough drops. The little yellow demon, Flu, came as a transient resident. All schools in the county have been closed for a whole week! Sigh!—

Of course, it didn't stop us from seeing the Ice Capades and attending the 60 Club Banquet. To recuperate from the activities we get a day off! Teacher's Institute, you know.

APRIL

Dear Diary,

Another short week, only four days. Instead of school, go to Good Friday services. Gotta get out my best bonnet, Easter's coming. Also, get out my best dress, Senior Dancel Super sigh.

The Seniors are really getting in the glory, first, a dance and then a play. Perhaps one of our local actors will some day be a screen idol. Wouldn't it be super if we had a Van Johnson in our midst.

Didn't I say we girls would have our day? The Mother and Daughter Banquet was quite an affair. We'll show those boys.

MAY and JUNE

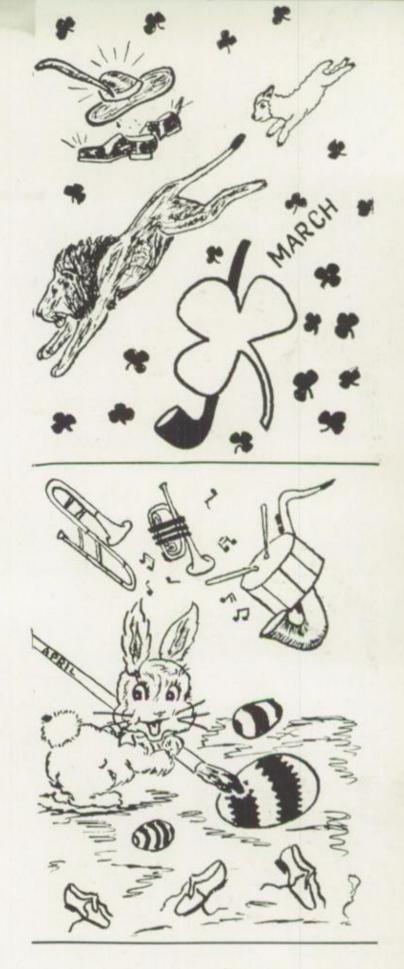

Dear Diary,

Oh Joy, joy unabounding joy! Just think of a legal skip day. What fun we had. Don't wake me up. I'm still dreaming of the Prom. All that food and so much dancing. Here I go for the last time. Exams—Well, I hope it's the last time!

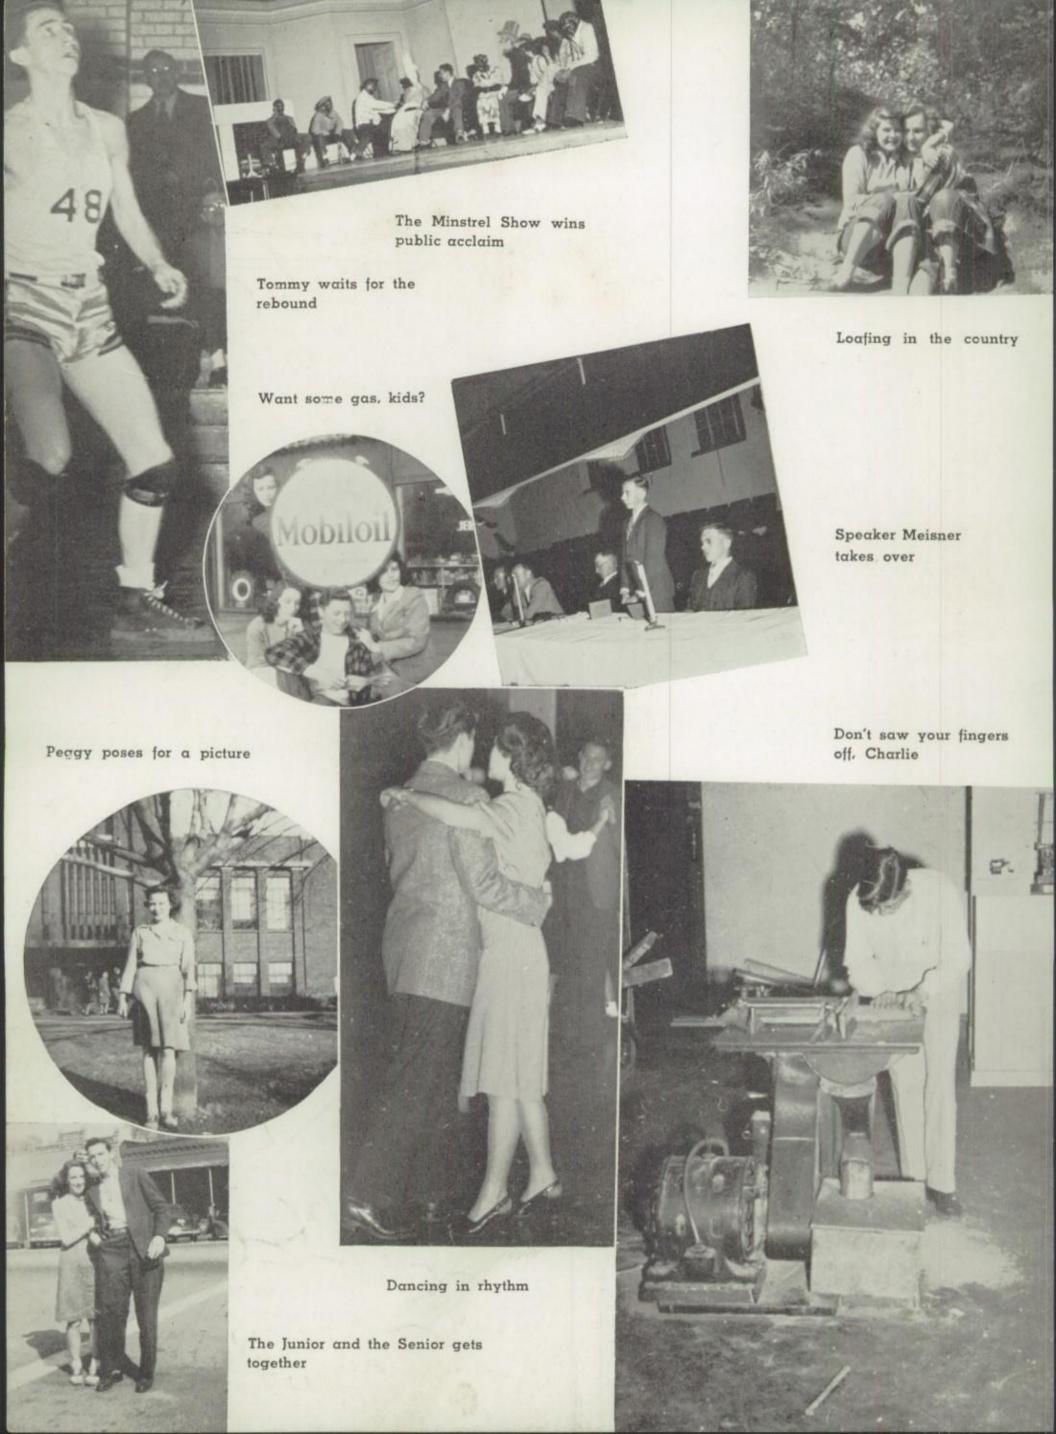

Only a few days and it will be all over. Diplomas, vacations, new jobs, and wedding bells are all in the air. All this excitement in one month.

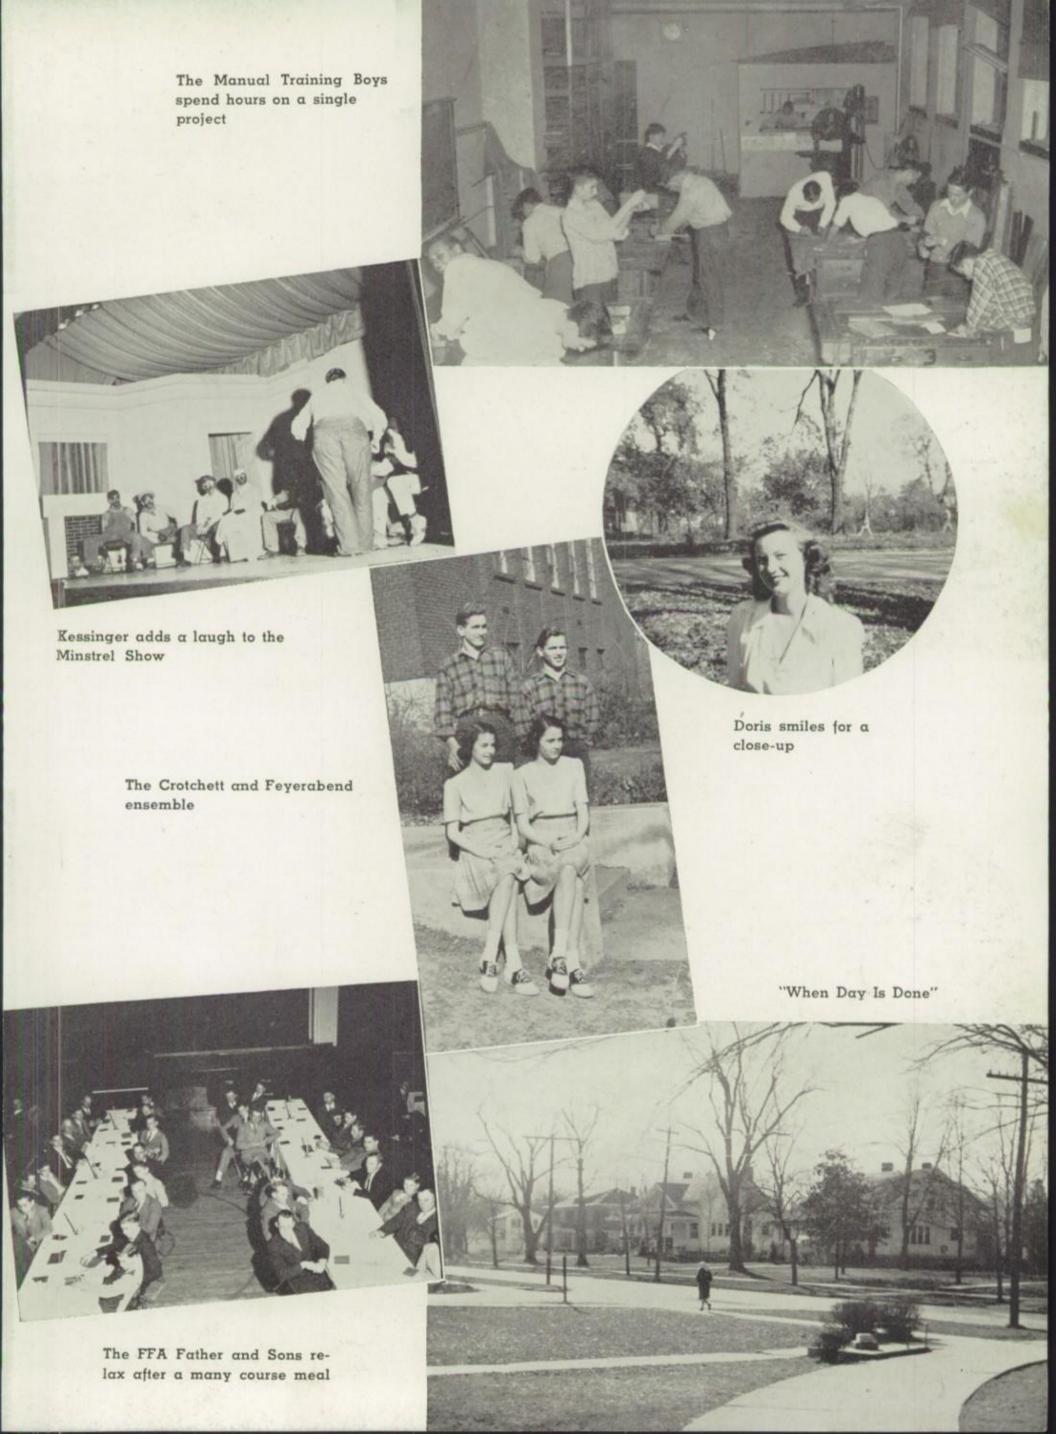

With a tear in my eye and a lump in my throat I must bid a last goodbye.

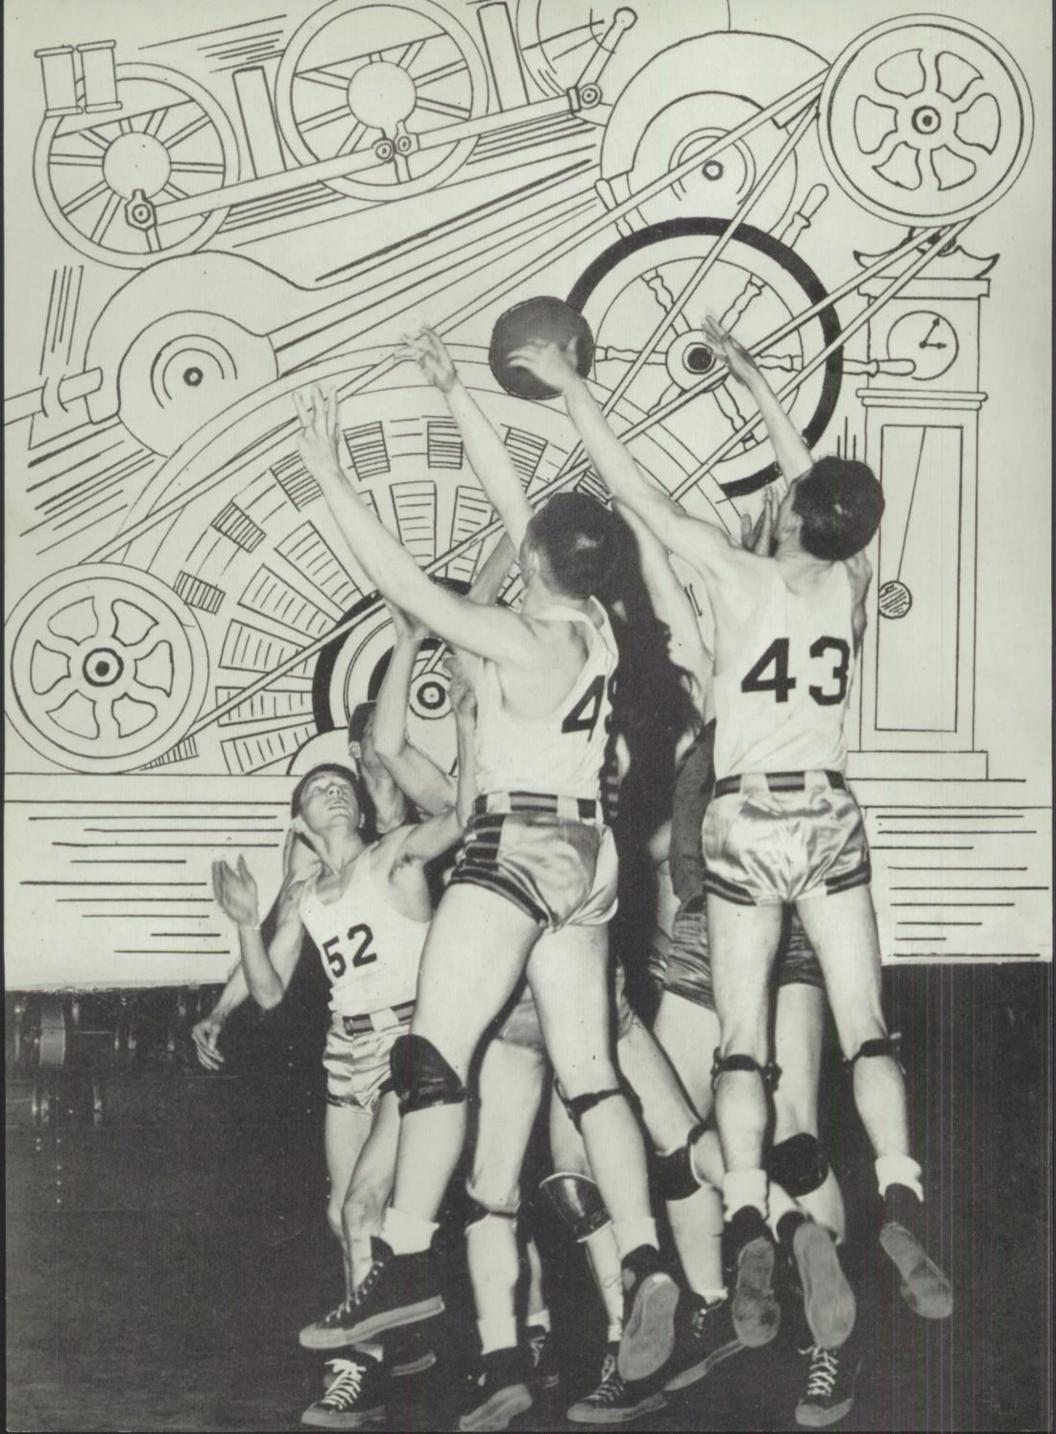

Th-th-th-th-at's all, diary, bye.

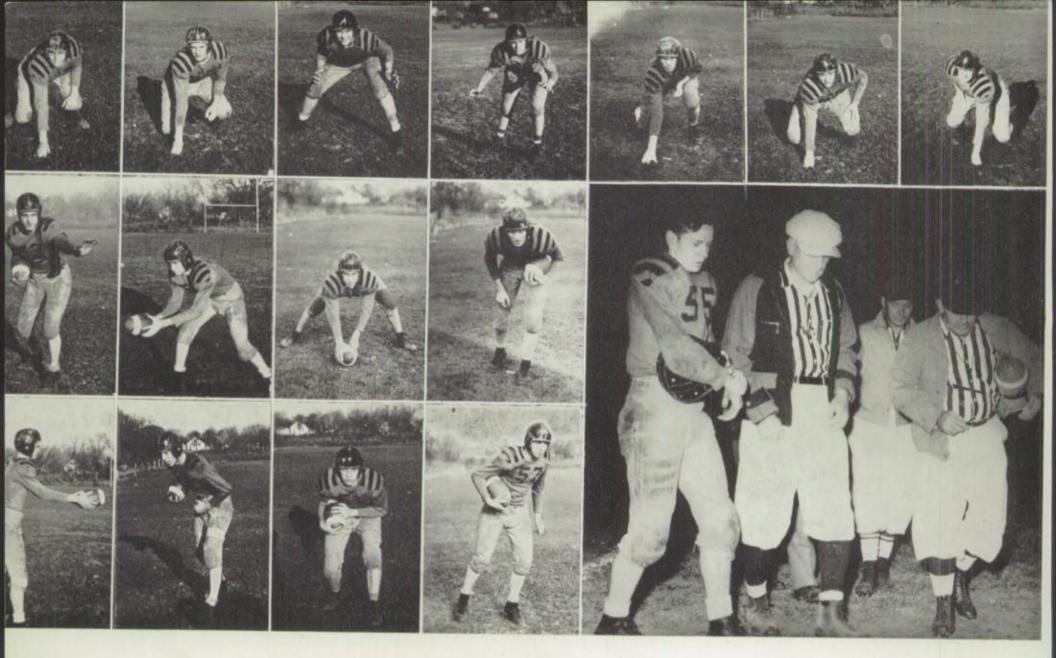

The "Power" Urge Greatly Influences Human Conduct

The modern industrial organization is dependent upon intelligent, voluntary, harmonious co-operation on the part of all participants. It requires that they shall distribute themselves according to choice, ability, and interest in the various positions, and so direct their individual policies as to keep the industries in balance. If, through mistaken ideas of self-interest, they become intent upon forwarding individual interests, they lost sight of the necessity for whole-hearted co-operation and the whole system of highly developed industry will break down.

FOOTBALL

September 13—Mount Olive (away) M.O. 19 — J.T.H.S. 0
The season's opener, though the score doesn't indicate, was a game in which the teams were closely matched.

September 20—Western Military Academy (home) W.M.A. 12 — J.T.H.S. 6
It was a hard fought game and was lost in the closing seconds. The Boys proved that they had the stuff.

September 27—Winchester (home)

Winchester was our first Conference game.

W.H.S. 6 — J.T.H.S. 18

The team didn't show the usual fight but came through in winning colors.

FOOTBALL

October 4—Pittsfield (away)

The first team was "lousy" and the opponent was the strongest we had met. Coach used more boys in this game than any other.

October 11—Roodhouse (home)

After a hard fought, scoreless game, the opponents managed to edge by for another victory over J.T.H.S. in the last two minutes of the game.

October 17—Greenfield (away)

After a heartbreaking defeat by Roodhouse, the team rebounded to set back Greenfield by a barrage of passes.

October 25—Carrollton (home)

It was a free scoring duel, but we managed to edge by Carrollton with one point. The defense of both teams was very weak.

November 1—White Hall (home) W.H.H.S. 19 — J.T.H.S. 16
The line fought hard; but due to poor passing and a weak defense we were downed by a narrow margin of 3 points.

November 8—Pleasant Hill (away)

J.T.H.S. closed the 1946 season football season by trouncing Pleasant Hill.

The boys exhibited good teamwork and a hard driving backfield.

THE CHEERING SQUAD

A Jerseyville home game would be incomplete without its ardent rooters, band performance at the half, and a special show by the majorettes.

The fans always add to the spirit of our team as the Panthers battle for the victory.

BASKETBALL

Coach Ralph Cavanah awarded ten J's to Panther athletes who performed on the 1946-47 Jersey Township High School basketball team.

The following received awards:

Seniors—Bill Burch, Bob French, Fred Glassbrenner, Donald Robeen Juniors—Wayne Arnold, Bob Campbell, Jake Gettings, Tom Feyerabend

Freshman—Bill Reynolds

The Orange and Black, hampered by the injury of Bill Burch won nine games and lost fourteen. They won three out of ten conference games and played their best brand of ball at the start and finish of the season. December and January found the team in a slump but with the return of Burch, the squad such fuch to one of how both the best girls & form won half of their final ten games.

HOLY NIGHT

On Sunday afternoon, December 15, 1946 at 3:00 P. M., an atmosphere of Christmas prevailed as the combined glee clubs marched into the gym in a unique and impressive manner.

Each boy and girl was dressed in a black robe with crisp starched collar and carried a lighted taper.

SPECIAL TIMES TO STAY LIVELY

The first dance of the school year, sponsored by the Freshman class, turned out to be a successful gala evening.

The dignified Juniors had a good time at the annual Sophomore dance. Darting arrows and broken hearts were symbolic decorations.

The huge Christmas card was a unique signal to invite all the Juniors' guests to enjoy the festive Christmas season.

AT J. T. H. S.

One of the most favorite dances of the school year was the one sponsored by the "60" Club.

Boots Brennan's excellent dance music and the setting of the Sidewalk Cafe contributed in a large part to the success of the Senior dance.

This extraordinary occasion, the Junior-Senior Prom, was enjoyed May 22, in the high school gym.

The efforts of various staff members contributed to the year book.

The burden of a year book is always heavy to a few. The efforts of this group was untiring.

The "60" Club represents interest that must be taken in every "going" concern. It is the members of the "60" Club that are always in there cheering for the fellows and taking an active part in the banquets and picnics of the club. CHEERLEADERS

Our cheerleaders are responsible for house-ringing yells that are given at all our games. They are representatives of our fighting spirit and will to win. They were selected because of their enthusiasm and good sportsmanship.

To be a good worker a man must be satisfied with conditions surrounding his home. The Home Ec girls are taught the arts of Domestic Science and how to apply this knowledge in their future homes.

It will be in homes like these that our future nation will be moulded. Consequently, this club is of great importance to all.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Agriculture is the basic industry for all the world. Henceforth, better educated farmers are a necessity in this fast moving world.

The emblem of the F. F. A. is made up of four symbols: the owl, the plow, the rising sun within a cross section of an ear of corn, and the American eagle. On the face of the emblem are the words "Vocational Agriculture" and the letters "F. F. A."

The Father and Son Banquet was an outstanding event of the $F.\ F.\ A.$ activities.

The study of Latin gives its members a vivid and clear understanding of the English language. This is especially beneficial to modern world men and women when they must understand all that is possible for the betterment of themselves.

The annual club picnic at the end of the school year is enjoyed by all members and the faculty.

ALL SHOT!!!

A duel was lately fought by Alexander Shott and John S. Nott. Nott was shot, and Shott was not. In this case it is better to be Shott than Nott. There was a rumor that Nott was not shot, but Shott avows that he was not.

It may be that the shot Shott shot shot Nott or, as accidents with firearms are frequent, it may be possible that the shot Shott shot Shott, himself. We think however, that the shot Shott shot shot, not Shott, but Nott.

Coach: "I caught the cook this morning straining the coffee through one of my socks." Wife: "Did you discharge her?"

Coach: "No, it wasn't one of my clean ones."

Enraged Father, Mr. Schleeper: "I'll teach you to kiss my daughter!" Claude Davis: "Ha, Ha, I've learned already."

IDEAS ON WHAT LOVE IS

To Freshies:

Love is a psychological mystery.

To Sophs:

Love is one world with only two people in it.

To Juniors:

Love is an insane idea.

To Seniors:

Love is a little sighing; a little crying, and a blamed lot of lying.

Betty Thurston: "Did you ever love another girl like you do me?"

Louis Crochett: "I should say not; I would be broke if I had."

Miss Frost: "Raymond, why was Gregory the Great outstanding?"

Raymond Heath: "Because all the chairs were on the inside and he was left out standing."

NUMBERS

A first-grade teacher, despairing of teaching her youngest student to read numbers, enlisted the aid of the boy's father. The father wrote "3" on the blackboard. "Three," said the son. The father wrote "5." "Five," said the son. The father wrote "8." "Pretzel," said the son.

TOUGH COURSE

A novice golfer approached the first tee, nervously glancing around to see if he were being observed. Sure enough, there were about thirty people on the clubhouse porch. Undaunted he teed up, selected his club, swung it in a mighty arcand missed. He swung again and again, missing the ball each time. Finally, he wiped his forehead, turned to his audience and said, "Tough course, ain't it?"

GUILT

The minister arose to address his congregation. "There is a certain man among us today who is flirting with another man's wife. Unless he puts five dollars in the collection box, his name will be read from the pulpit."

When the collection plate came in, there were nineteen five dollar bills and a two dollar bill with this note attached: "Other three payday."

The young bride, Ramona Kallal, placed the turkey carefully on the table for the Thanksgiving dinner. "This, my dear," she exclaimed, "is my first roast turkey."

Her husband, Maurice Kirchner, looked with admiration. "Marvelous, darling," he said. "And how wonderfully you've stuffed it!"

how wonderfully you've stuffed it?"
"Stuffed it?" she asked. "Why, dearest, this one wasn't hollow."

Barbara Miller: "Late hours are not good for one." Verna Lea Ruyle: "No, but they are fine for two."

Dorothy Downey, a recent bride, was always annoyed by her husband's presence in the kitchen while she was preparing dinner, and when he accidently knocked her cook book to the floor, she flared up. "Now look what you've done. You've lost the place and I haven't the least idea what I'm cooking."

Waiter: "May I help you with that soup, Sir?"
Ex-sailor Jim Miller: "What do you mean, help me?
I don't need any help."

Waiter: "Sorry, from the sound I thought you might wish to be dragged ashore."

Jake Gettings: "Changing a tire, eh?"
Charlie Powers: "No, I just get out every few miles and jack it up to give it a rest."

Mama Skunk was worried because she could never keep track of her two children. They were named In and Out, and whenever In was in, Out was out, and if Out was in, In was out. One day she called Out in to her and told him to go out and bring In in. So Out went out and in no time at all, he brought In in.

"Wonderfull" said Mama Skunk. "How in all this great forest could you find him in so short a time?"

"It was easy," said Out. "In stinct."

When the examination was over, the teacher in a mountain school told her pupils to write a pledge that they had neither received no help in this matter or given help. One gangling youth, who had squirmed in dismay and mopped a bewildered brow throughout the ordeal, wrote:

"I ain't received no help in this matter; and God knows I couldn't have gave any."

A Texan arrived at the gates of heaven and asked for admission.

"Where are you from?" inquired the genial Saint.
